PRESIDENTIAL SPEECH

Good evening, distinguished Pastors, Leaders', executives, and the amazing Youths of the Lagos West Baptist Youth Conference.

It is with great joy, gratitude, and excitement that I warmly welcome you all to the Year 2026 Ushering-In Programme.

First and foremost, I return all glory to God Almighty, the giver of life and the sustainer of His Church, for His faithfulness, mercy, and preservation over us all. Truly, God has been gracious to us as individuals, churches, and as a conference. Through every challenge, every testimony, and every season, He has remained our source of strength and direction. It is by His grace alone that we have crossed into a new year filled with fresh opportunities, greater possibilities, and renewed hope.

I count it a great privilege and honour to stand before you today to deliver the welcome address at this special programme. This administration was introduced during the last Ushering-In Programme and officially inducted at the Elevation Conference in November 2025. Since then, God has continually guided and strengthened us with a burden and passion to see the youths of this conference grow spiritually, discover purpose, and make meaningful impact for Christ in our generation.

By divine direction, the Lord has led our Convention Youth Leadership to the theme for the year, "EXPLORE," with our Bible text taken from Genesis 13:14–18.

In this passage, after Lot separated from Abraham, the Lord spoke to Abraham and instructed him to lift up his eyes and look northward, southward, eastward, and westward, because all the land before him had been given unto him. God further instructed him to arise and walk through the land, for it belonged to him.

This scripture carries a powerful message for us as youths in this season. God is calling us to move beyond limitations, fears, distractions, and comfort zones. He is calling us to see beyond where we are presently and begin to walk into the future He has prepared for us. The theme "EXPLORE" is not just a slogan for the year; it is a divine instruction and a call to action.

As youths of the Lagos West Baptist Youth Conference, this is our season to explore deeper dimensions of God's presence and power. It is a season to explore spiritual growth, leadership, excellence, creativity, purpose, and service. God is calling us to rise above mediocrity and discover the gifts, potentials, and opportunities He has deposited inside of us.

We must explore beyond the ordinary. We must explore beyond fear and doubt. We must explore beyond the mindset that says "this is enough." God has greater things ahead for His people, but we must be willing to arise, step out in faith, and possess the land He has prepared for us.

This theme also reminds us that the future of the Church and this great denomination rests heavily upon the shoulders of the youth. Therefore, Youth Week 2026 should not merely become another annual programme or a jamboree in our various churches. Rather, it should be a season where our churches truly feel our presence, passion, commitment, and impact.

Let this be a time when young people arise to serve faithfully in their churches, contribute meaningfully to the work of God, and become agents of revival in their communities. Let this be a season where we strengthen our prayer lives, deepen our walk with God, build healthy relationships, discover purpose, and become shining examples of Christ everywhere we find ourselves.

To every young person listening today, I encourage you not to limit yourself. There is more in you than you currently see. There are territories to conquer, lives to influence, souls to win, and heights to attain by the grace of God. Refuse to remain stagnant. Refuse to settle for less when God has prepared greater things for you.

As a conference, may this year mark a new beginning for us. May we experience growth in unity, love, service, leadership, and spiritual revival. May God rNaise youths from this conference who will stand boldly for Christ and make lasting impact in the Church, society, and the world at large.

I pray that throughout this Youth Week and all our programmes this year, the Lord will open our eyes to new possibilities, strengthen our faith, direct our steps, and empower us to fully explore all that He has prepared for us.

Thank you for being a part of this gathering. Thank you for your commitment, support, and dedication to the work of God.

Once again, welcome to the Year 2026 Ushering-In Programme.

May God bless the Lagos West Baptist Youth Conference, and may He bless every one of us richly.

Yours in service,

Babatunde Oresanya
President
Lagos West Baptist Youth Conference

THEME INTERPRETATION

EXPLORE

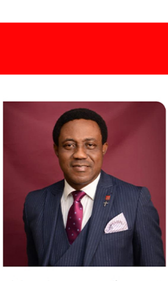
GENESIS 13:14–18



"The Lord said to Abram, after Lot had separated from him, 'Lift up your eyes and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward, 15 for all the land that you see I will give to you and to your offspring forever." Genesis 13:14-15, ESV

INTRODUCTION
We thank God for this year's Youth Ushering-In and the prophetic theme before us. The word explore literally means "to travel over (new territory) for adventure or discovery" or "to make or conduct a systematic search." However, biblically, it means all the above and more. Thus, the prophetic dimension of exploration in this passage, especially for Christian youths, makes all the difference compared to the secular perspective.

The moment Lot separated from Abram by supposedly choosing the most fertile portion of the land, God interrupted Abram's perceived hopelessness in verses 14–18. The theme "Explore" clearly captures the next divine level, as God immediately invited Abram to look, walk, and claim what He had earlier promised him (Genesis 12:1–9). God's promise to Abram in this text has a divine DATE, DESTINATION, DEMAND, and DELIVERY. God does not promise what He cannot fulfill!

In other words, exploration is a prophetic act defined by a divine interruption of a seemingly lost cause, and guiding the covenant believer into new levels of manifestation and establishment of covenant promises. It is a divine response to apparent hopelessness and perhaps, satanic suggestions. Furthermore, it activates the next level of covenant promise—possession. Notice that God did not call Abram to this next level until he had rid himself of the burden and distraction of Lot. Many youths are encumbered and slowed down by excess "load" and so cannot EXPLORE. It is pertinent to note that covenant engagements with God are personal and require a high level of sanctification for actualization.

Thus, from our focal text above, EXPLORE is underscored by:

1.FORECALL: Explore requires divine invitation. God must necessarily invite you to this prophetic level by Himself. He is the one who told Abram to "lift up your eyes and look" (v.14). Consequently, exploration in the biblical sense is not aimless wandering or human ambition. It starts when God opens your eyes to what's already His, and by His omniscient capabilities. Thus, you do not create the promise by exploring; you discover it because God invites you to see it. Note that God does not call the unbelievers to this level. Thus, you must have been saved to qualify to explore.

2. FORESIGHT: Explore requires you to see before possessing. What you see is what you seize. From the focal text, God says, "For all the land that you see I will give to you..." (v.15). In other words, vision precedes possession. Abram had to see it with the eyes of faith before he could walk in it. Thus, spiritual exploration is about expanding your capacity to see God's promises. If you cannot see it, you won't move toward it and cannot seize it. The Bible amply confirms this by stating, "Where there is no vision the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he" Proverbs 29:18, NKJV.

3. FAITH: Explore requires active faith, not passivity. Responding to God's prophetic command requires faith. The Scriptures amply state, "In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead" James 2:17. God commanded Abram, "Arise, walk through the length and breadth of the land" (v.17). Note that God did not drop the land on Abram (the land did not come to meet him); He commanded him to walk it. Thus, exploring God's promise involves absolute obedience and movement. Faith that doesn't walk stays stuck at the promise stage. In other words, active faith is accompanied by foot-walk. The Bible further buttresses this by saying, "But without faith it is impossible to please him..." Hebrews 11:6, NKJV

4. FIDELITY (of God): Explore reiterates cum reminds us about the faithfulness of God towards His promises to His children. God can be trusted always. He says what He does and does what He says. Whatever He promises, He has the capacity to bring it to pass. The God who commands you to explore is more than able to execute His promises to the latter. God said to Abram, "For all the land that you see I will give to you and to your offspring forever. I will make your offspring as the dust of the earth, so that if one can count the dust of the earth, your offspring also can be counted" (vv.16-17). The fidelity of God is the quality that makes us trust Him and His promises always. He is indeed a dependable God. It includes the assurance of His blessings.

5. FELLOWSHIP: Explore requires God's presence and fellowship with Him. This is marked by Abram's erection of an altar of worship. It is an intentional act with a spiritual undertone. Abram builds an altar at Hebron after receiving the promise. Every step of exploration was anchored in worship. In Genesis chapter 12, we notice Abram replicates this act each time God appears to him and speaks with him, assuring him of His promises. True exploration does not drift away from God. It leads you to build altars, to pause and acknowledge Him in new places. In other words, Abram understood the importance of God's presence and fellowshipping with Him in actualizing the explore mandate. This is vital for our successful faith-walk with the Lord on this terrestrial ball.

6. FULFILLMENT: Explore reminds and reassures us of the generational scope of God's promise. The command to explore brings us closer to the manifestation of His promise. Whenever the heavens command, the earth must comply. Note what God says to Abraham, "For all the land that you see I will give to you and to your offspring forever" (v.15). In other words, what Abram explores now impacts generations even yet unborn. This promise was fulfilled as God said it would: "Thus the Lord gave to Israel all the land that he swore to give to their fathers. And they took possession of it, and they settled there... Not one word of all the good promises that the Lord had Hence, exploration with God is never just about you. It opens territory for your family, church, and those who come after. This is why you must be serious with God and diligent in your service to Him. What you do today can open the door or close the door of good fortune for you, your family, and future generations. So, be careful!

CONCLUSION
Explore is a prophetic signal of the steps towards accomplishing divine purpose. It is God's promise pursued and possessed by purpose and persistence under the sovereign will of God. This is what the heavens is saying to you today: Lift your eyes, walk in faith, and worship as you claim the territory God has already promised you, knowing it impacts your generations. Therefore, if you can obediently explore, then you can embrace God's richest blessings, not only for you but even for your unborn generations. Get ready to realize your divine possibilities. It is time to arise, look up, walk by faith (with God), worship Him, and possess your promised possession (and for your generations too). Never miss this opportunity. Shalom!

HYMNS

HIGHER GROUND
EBH 319

1. I'm pressing on the upward way,
New heights I'm gaining ev'ry day;
Still praying as I onward bound,
"Lord, plant my feet on higher ground"
Lord, lift me up and let me stand,
By faith on heaven's table-land,
A higher plan than I have found;
Lord, plant my feet on higher ground.

2. My heart has no desire to stay
Where doubts arise and fears dismay;
Tho'some may dwell where these abound, My prayer, my aim is higher ground.

3. I want to live above the world,
Tho'Satan's darts at me are hurled;
For faith has caught the joyful sound,
The song of saints on higher ground.

4. I want to scale the utmost height
And catch a gleam of glory bright;
But still I'll pray fill heav'nl'vefound,
"Lord, lead me on the higher ground." Amen.

HE LEADETH ME: O BLESSED THOUGHT
EBH 58

1 He leadeth me: O blessed thought!
O words with heavenly comfort fraught!
Whate'er I do, where'er I be,
still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me.

Refrain:
He leadeth me, he leadeth me;
by his own hand he leadeth me:
his faithful follower I would be,
for by his hand he leadeth me.

2 Sometimes mid scenes of deepest gloom,
sometimes where Eden's flowers bloom,
by waters calm, o'er troubled sea,
still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me. Refrain

3 Lord, I would clasp thy hand in mine,
nor ever murmur nor repine;
content, whatever lot I see,
since 'tis my God that leadeth me. Refrain

4 And when my task on earth is done,
when, by thy grace, the victory's won,
e'en death's cold wave I will not flee,
since God through Jordan leadeth me. Refrain
